

XM Radio is the biggest innovatiion to hit the airwaves in decades! Besides, we pay a subscription fee which dictates that the free market will determine content. The FCC has better things to do with its limited resources (read 'budget') than to pander to the anti-competitive instincts of the AM/FM broadcast establishment.

I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160.

Tom Wilson